by deleting all of the language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-50-502, is amended by deleting the language of subdivision one (1) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(1) The major source or sources of private income of more than two hundred dollars ($200), including, but not limited to, offices, directorships, and salaried employments of the person making disclosure, the spouse, or minor children residing with such person, but no dollar amounts need be stated. It shall be necessary to state the name and address of any entity which provides a source of private income of more than two hundred dollars ($200). This subdivision (1) shall not be construed to require the disclosure of any client list or customer list;

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-50-502, is amended by adding the following as a new appropriately designated subdivision thereto:

(___) Any positions held during the applicable reporting period, including, but not limited to, those of an officer, director, trustee, general partner, proprietor, or representative of any corporation, firm, partnership, or other business enterprise, or any non-profit organization or educational institution. Both the year and month must be reported for the period of time the position was held. Positions with the federal government, religious, social, fraternal, or political entities, and those solely of an honorary nature do not require disclosure.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 8-50-501, is amended by adding the following language at the end of subsection (d)(1):

The disclosure shall be posted on the web site of the registry of election finance.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2005, the public welfare requiring it.
